

➤ Improving Health Research and Education Capacity in Africa (Africa Build)

The project aimed to improve health research and education capacity in Africa, through Information technologies, and to build an African Centre of Excellence in health informatics using technology in health research. A needs assessment of the SPH/UG of ICT infrastructure was done and an online portal has been developed. Dr. Richmond Aryeetey was the lead SPH Investigator.